

Personal Letter.

Hello,

My name is Samantha and I am writing this letter to introduce myself to you. I would also be delighted to hear something back from you so we could get to know each other better.

A little bit about me - I am currently living in Ventspils, Latvia, but I am originally from Saldus. Saldus is a beautiful city in Courland, charming region in western Latvia. There are many landmarks in my city, despite its modest size. As I said before I am living in Ventspils at the moment because this September I started my studies in Ventspils University of Applied Sciences. My study program is called Intercultural Communication and it mainly focuses on how cultural differences influence the way people communicate and interact. So far so good, I am really enjoying the studies.

Most of my free time is spent studying, spending time with friends, and participating in various student activities. I try to take part in as many events as possible, and I would highly recommend doing the same, as it opens many doors to opportunities in project work and allows you to meet a lot of new people. This is perfect for me, as I am very outgoing person and truly enjoy making new connections. Apart from that, I love spending time outdoors, going on long walks either alone or with my dog. I am also passionate about traveling and learning about different cultures, which ultimately inspired my decision to study Intercultural Communication.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I hope you enjoyed it as much as I enjoyed writing it. Hopefully, it was interesting for you to read and we will get in touch soon.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Samantha.
